“As the economy begins to thaw, quick reflexes and rapid execution will differentiate Dutchess County from the rest of the State.” said Paul Calogerakis, incoming Chairman of the Dutchess County Economic Development Corporation, “With consistent leadership at the corporate and political levels throughout the County, we have proven our cohesiveness with wins like SpectraWatt and Associated Aircraft Group, and I look forward to exploiting those strengths during the next two years.”

“DCEDC looks forward to capitalizing upon the progress we made under the strategic leadership of Wayne Nussbickel as we navigate the challenging period ahead. “Paul Calogerakis’ unique understanding of the banking sector as it relates to the Dutchess market will prove to be invaluable.” According to John MacEnroe, President of DCEDC, “Paul’s skill set will further Team Dutchess’ ability to ‘close the deal’ as we continue to prove to the State and region that ‘Dutchess is open for business’.”
